SPACE English Language

The SPACE General English programme consists of 7 tiers with each becoming progressively more difficult. Each tier leads to its own academic awards, spanning from Foundation Certificate to Advanced Diploma in General English awarded within the HKU System through HKU SPACE.

Upon completion of each tier, students may progress to the next level programme by meeting the minimum entry requirements for admission to the specific programme.

Our overall aim is to give students on-going practice of language skills at an appropriate level of proficiency. Under the guidance of very well-qualified and experienced teachers, students are equipped with English knowledge and skills through language practice and student-centred learning activities such as small group discussion, reading, writing, speaking and listening to a wide variety of authentic and semi-authentic language texts.

Continuing Education Fund

With the exception of Tier 7 Advanced Diploma in General English programme, ALL General English and English Language Skills programmes (NOT single modules) programmes and CEF claimable.

English Language Instructors / Teachers

Instructors of the programmes are drawn from our panel of qualified and experienced English language teachers. Almost all of them are native speakers of English; others are local teachers with native speaker competence.

E-learning

All registered SPACE English Language students enjoy the privilege of taking part in FREE online e-learning activities and self-access learning resources materials.

English Immersion Activities

Expenses incurred in in English Immersion Activities are borne by individual Tier 7 Advanced Diploma in General English students.

Teaching Venue

There is no guarantee that the teaching venue allocated for the entire course duration will be the same. Depending on room availability, teaching venues may be different from those advertised at the time this Prospectus is published.

Fees

Subject to annual review.

Notes to Applicants for Admission to General English / English Language Skills Programmes

1. All applications will be processed on a first come, first served basis.
2. All application forms must be supported by copies of the relevant result letters showing your HKCEE/HKDSE/other publicly recognised English Language test results. Applicants who do not meet the entry requirements (See Entry Requirements on pg 142.) or are unable to produce any documentary proof need to take the SPACE General English Entrance Examination.
3. Once registered, NO refunds or transfers to a different class will be approved.
4. Unless any changes are made to the announced details, NO joining instructions will be issued.
5. If your application has been accepted, you should go to the first session of the course at the time and venue shown.

Notes to Non-Local Applicants / Non-Permanent Hong Kong Residents:

For Non-Local Applicants / Non-Permanent Hong Kong Residents:

The following non-local / non-permanent Hong Kong residents are eligible to study parttime English Language courses at HKU SPACE without making visa arrangements, ie they do not need prior approval before taking up part-time study courses:

1. those who live in Hong Kong on one-way permits (單程證);
2. those admitted to Hong Kong as dependents;
3. those issued with a valid working/employment visa; and
4. those who stay in Hong Kong under the Capital Investment Entrant Scheme.

It is the responsibility of individual applicants to ensure that their visas are valid and to make appropriate visa arrangements. Upon course enrolment, non-local applicants are required to show original copies of their permits and/or visas during application of General English programmes.

SPACE General English Entrance Examination

The SPACE General English Entrance Examination is used to place applicants into suitable English courses within a seven-tier General English Programme at HKU SPACE. Students can begin at any level, from foundation, certificate to advanced diploma level. The entrance examination is offered at specific times every year: from June to October for the autumn intake, and from January to March for the spring intake.

Time schedules for the spring intake are:

DAY SESSIONS
Application Code	Date/Time	Venue
-	*Sat, 16 Feb 2019, 1:30pm	To be confirmed
1675-1601NW	Sat, 2 Mar 2019, 2:00pm	To be confirmed
1675-1604NW	Sat, 30 Mar 2019, 2:00pm	To be confirmed
EVENING SESSIONS
Application Code	Date/Time	Venue

1665-1702NW	Fri, 25 Jan 2019, 7:00pm	To be confirmed

* Enrol on the same day and enjoy Fee Waiver.
* Applicants taking the Entrance Exam on 16 February 2019 (Sat) should note:
  Please pay the General English Entrance Exam Fee (HK$210) in cheque (payable to "HKU SPACE") at the Admiralty Enrolment Counter 10 minutes before the test which starts at 1:30pm on Saturday (16 February). The Test Fee (HK$210) will be refunded to those who enrol into a General English course on the same day ie Saturday 16 February 2019.

A non-refundable fee of $210 is required for taking this test. Applicants for the test should fill out the special application form for the SPACE General English Entrance Examination to take the exam on a date that suits them. We will send out admission letters offering places after the exam sessions in good time to allow applicants ample time for course enrolment. Applicants who take an early exam will have a better chance of getting a place at a centre and time of their choice. Applicants who take a later exam will have a limited choice of classes.

There is no guarantee that everyone who takes the SPACE General English Entrance Examination will be offered a place in any of the tiers of the SPACE English Course. Candidates with examination performance below the Certificate in General English (Foundation) may be advised to take the Essential English [http://hkuspace.hku.hk/prog/essential-english] course before continuing with higher level English language development programmes at HKU SPACE.

Candidates for SPACE General English Entrance Examination should note:

(1) Unless any change is made to the announced details, NO admission form will be issued.
(2) Candidates with official receipts should go to the exam session of their choice at the registered time and place.
(3) No refunds or transfers to a different exam session will be approved.

Non-Local Applicants / Non-Permanent Hong Kong Residents should note:

It is the responsibility of individual applicants to ensure that their visas are valid and to make appropriate visa arrangements. Upon course enrolment, non-local applicants are required to show original copies of their permits and/or visas during application of General English programmes.

Exploring Literature Series

HKU SPACE offers a series of short English literature courses. These courses are open to all who are interested in English literature or literary studies.

For students who are preparing themselves for internationally-recognised programmes in English / English literature, participation in these short courses offers them exposures to the aesthetics of literature, nurtures their literary sentiment, and stimulates their criticism on literary works and other genres.

A series of short literary courses which are open to all but they will be of particular interest to part-time students who need more exposure and input to English Literature.

19th Century American Fiction

3762 0929 | english-info@hkuspace.hku.hk

Some of the most well-known novels in the world were written in the 19th Century. American writers also contributed to this phenomenon. This course will look at the shorter works of three important American novelists who were active in their writing career during the first half of this great century.

1. Nathaniel Hawthorne: "Young Goodman Brown" ; "Rappaccini's daughter"

Reading Drama
Course Code: ELIT9089

Application Code: 1670-1283NW

3762 0929 | english-info@hkuspace.hku.hk

From classical Greek drama to contemporary theatre, the stage has always been an integral part of the human experience. The course looks at selective moments in the history of drama in which certain playwrights benefited fully from the history of the genre and yet departed so radically from that history. Exploring the content as well as the form of their dramatic works provides key insights into some of the most important societal and cultural issues of both past and present.

R – Applicants are required to have reached the age of 18.
– Applicants should have a good reading knowledge of English, a willingness to participate in discussion and, above all, an interest in literature.

Reading Short Stories
Course Code: ELIT9100

Application Code: 1680-1166NW

3762 0929 | english-info@hkuspace.hku.hk

This course explores the idea of storytelling through reading the works of some of the short story's most prominent writers. It deals with fundamental questions like: Why do people need to tell, read, write and listen to fictional stories? By examining the aesthetics as well as the politics of storytelling, the course aims at shedding some light on the different themes generated by narration and revealing the void that lies beneath man's sense of identity.

Representations of Ethnicity
Course Code: ELIT9038

Application Code: 1690-1105NW

3762 0929 | english-info@hkuspace.hku.hk

The course aims at examining the politicized nature of ethnic representations and how they affect social relations and the ethno-symbolic network. Investigating the links between media, society and culture, it falls into the following main themes: Silencing the Asiatic, the White/Black division, the Caribbean subaltern, the Arab and Muslim others, and the symbolic American other. Exploring forms, practices, and politics of representation, we will discuss the importance, as well as the futility, of representational ethnic struggles.

The Literary Unconscious: Psychoanalytic Literary Theory

Course Code: ELIT9108

Application Code: 1670-1748NW

3762 0929 | english-info@hkuspace.hku.hk

Sigmund Freud argues that the sexual instinct and civilization are irreconcilable and society must repress the sexual, even at the cost of producing neurotics. By exploring literary and film texts, this course aims to examine the application of psychoanalytic theory in the representation of sexuality in culture. Intensive reading is mandatory and expected of students who will be guided through the discussion of the writings of Sigmund Freud, Jacques Lacan, and other theorists who have contributed to the legacy of psychoanalysis as a tool for the reading of culture.
