Mr Johan Potgieter

Johan's journey within the Spa and Wellness industry started 18yrs ago, after completing a degree in Sports Psychology and a side interest in injury prevention/rehabilitation. His first spa work experience began whilst working at a Wellness Spa in Italy. From then on his passion for the industry has grown, allowing him to work globally and gain unique working experiences across many aspects of the industry; within Day Spas, Private Membership Clubs, Luxury Cruise Ships, Medical Spas and of course 5* Luxury Hotel Brands. After many years of focusing on Spa & Leisure operations, training and development. Johan has since moved his focus into managing his own consulting company, and assisting some of the top hotel brands, in their development of spa's and leisure facilities and operations.
