Certificate in German (Intermediate)

Programme Code: EU003A

2975 5681

jaime.tong@hkuspace.hku.hk

This programme can be taken upon successful completion of the Certificate in German (Introductory) or an equivalent programme of 110-130 hours. It enables students to consolidate their language foundation and build on their grammar. As a result, students will feel increasingly confident in their communicative ability. By the end of the programme, students should be able to talk about topics such as families and friends, leisure activities, food and drink, past and future situations. They should also be able to understand the main ideas when listening and reading. They can also write simple texts, e.g. postcards and emails. The programme is equivalent to A2 level in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

R Applicants shall have:

1. (a) obtained the Certificate in German (Introductory), awarded within the HKU system through HKU SPACE; or
(b) studied approximately 110-130 hours of German at a different institution; and
2. sufficient English proficiency to follow simple explanations in English.

Other applicants may be interviewed if necessary to confirm their suitability for the programme, e.g. if they have studied a similar number of hours elsewhere or have alternative experience learning the language, such as a study visit to the country.

In the absence of the evidence listed in (1), students should contact HKU SPACE before the application deadline for further information.

Advanced German Language Practice 2

Programme Code: GERM9003

2975 5681

jaime.tong@hkuspace.hku.hk

This course is designed to cater for advanced-level students of German who have already completed all the HKU SPACE Certificate German levels or the equivalent elsewhere and who wish to approach the language at an advanced and practical way. These students wish to keep practicing the language in an interactive class environment, whilst at the same time learning more about the culture of the German-speaking world. Students will be given the opportunity to engage with authentic texts from magazines, newspapers, songs, TV, films etc through discussion and group work. They will, as a result, improve their oral communication skills and also their range of vocabulary. There will be a relaxed and supportive learning environment and the course is not exam-based.

R Applicants should have studied around 350 hours of German and provide a Certificate/ Statement of Attendance to demonstrate this.

- In the absence of such evidence, external applicants should contact us for further information. Some students may be interviewed to determine their proficiency level.
- It is NOT required to have completed Advanced Language Practice 1 at HKU SPACE.
- Applicants would be expected to have acquired a minimum level of A2 on the European Language Framework and to be able to be studying now at a lower B1 level.
