University of Plymouth, UK
Application Code: 2380-HR137A

2867 8304

plymouthmahrm@hkuspace.hku.hk

The programme is intended to:

- Enable participants to develop the necessary skills, competencies and knowledge for effective, ethical and contemporary HR management in a business and organisational context.
- Provide students with the opportunity to develop the qualities needed for employment in complex and unpredictable HRM and related environments.
- Adopt a critical perspective on theory and research, and support the application of learning to students' work environments.
- Provide the opportunity for students to pursue some subjects to greater depth, to seek out an avenue of HRM enquiry and to carry out independent research through the undertaking of an HR Research Project.

Professional accreditation has been attained from the CIPD for the MAHRM so that upon successful completion of the programme, and dependent on students being in active CIPD Student membership (students can join CIPD as student members upon successful application of the MA HRM programme), students will gain Associate membership on completion. They will then be eligible to upgrade to Chartered or Fellow membership (depending upon their level of HR experience).

R Applicants should have:

- a bachelor's degree, awarded by a recognized institution, of at least second-class honours; OR
- a professional qualification recognized as equivalent to a bachelor's degree.

 ad.hrm@hkuspace.hku.hk

The values of today's generation are very different from earlier generations and monetary rewards are no longer the sole reward they are looking for in a job. Today's generation need to feel engaged in what they do. Engaged employees tend to have more passion in their work and require less supervision from their managers. But what are the factors that drive employee engagement?

This programme aims to equip students with the principles of employee engagement and the development of different employee engagement approaches and systems. It discusses the importance of communication styles and provides real-life examples and practices for students to frame their communications in ways that bring results. Topics such as 'identifying the objective of your message', 'reviewing how your message will be perceived by the recipient' and 'ways to overcome communication challenges at work' will be covered.

R Applicants shall:

- (a) have gained in the HKDSE Examination Level 2 in 5 subjects including English Language and Mathematics;
- OR
- (b) (i) have gained in HKCEE Grade E in 4 subjects (including Mathematics) and Level 2 in English Language, OR equivalent; AND
