This programme is in collaboration with the University of Plymouth, UK, and you'll study a range of topics affecting the global supply chain industry and develop management skills it demands. Deepening your understanding of international supply chain and shipping management, you'll be engaged with environmental and ethical debates, technological developments and government legislation, all of which impacts a manager's responsibilities and decisions. Many graduates are presently employed in global logistical businesses.

R Applicants shall:

- (a) hold a recognised Professional Diploma or Higher Diploma in the discipline of logistics, transport, shipping, operations, or trade awarded within the HKU system through HKU SPACE or from other recognised institutions; and
- (b) have 2 years of full-time work experience in the area of logistics, transport, shipping, operations or trade.

If the above academic qualification is from an institution where the language of teaching and assessment is not English, applicants shall provide evidence of English proficiency such as:

- (i) an overall band of 6.0 in the IELTS (with minimum component scores of 5.5 in all four components: listening, reading, speaking and writing); or
- (ii) an overall score 76 or above in the TOEFL iBT (with minimum component scores of listening 17, reading 18, speaking 20, writing 18).

Applicants may be required to take and pass additional module(s), based on individual merit, before the start of the programme.

Applicants with other equivalent qualifications will be considered on individual merit.

Programme Code: MS160A

Application Code: 2355-MS160A

2910 7610

bes@hkuspace.hku.hk

The ability to communicate and speak well in front of an audience is critical for personal and business success.

This programme aims to develop the skills of students in business communication and public speaking through theatre-based activities and role plays. It offers an innovative approach to achieve holistic communication through the use of physical body movement, language use and voice control.

The programme is designed to be hands-on and experiential, offering ample opportunity for students to practice and apply what they learn. At the end of the programme, students will have developed enhanced self-confidence in public speaking as well as improved ability to communicate effectively.

INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES

On completion of the programme, students should be able to

1. identify the challenges and opportunities of public speaking and business communication;
2. improve self-awareness, body language and voice through techniques used in theatre and stage training;
3. manage unexpected scenarios when speaking to an audience through techniques used by performing artists;
4. engage and connect with the audience in a persuasive manner.

Programme Code: MS159A

Application Code: 2375-MS159A

2910 7610

bes@hkuspace.hku.hk

The objective of this programme is to facilitate students to discover their "inner self", build their charisma and improve their social influence skills. The programme will equip students with the knowledge and skills to be more proactive, expressive and self-confident. It also covers areas like learning to lead instead of follow, coping with stress, and exploring ways to relax and regain energy.

The programme takes a practical approach by employing hands-on techniques including role plays, group discussions and exercises adapted from those utilised to train performing artists. These methods are specifically designed to enhance students' self-confidence, charismatic, expressiveness and influence.

R Applicants shall:

(A) have gained in the HKDSE Examination Level 2 in 5 subjects including English Language; OR
