This programme is in collaboration with the University of Plymouth, UK, and you'll study a range of topics affecting the global supply chain industry and develop management skills it demands. Deepening your understanding of international supply chain and shipping management, you'll be engaged with environmental and ethical debates, technological developments and government legislation, all of which impacts a manager's responsibilities and decisions. Many graduates are presently employed in global logistical businesses.

- R Applicants shall:
- hold a recognised Professional Diploma or Higher Diploma in the discipline of logistics, transport, shipping, operations, or trade awarded within the HKU system through HKU SPACE or from other recognised institutions; and
  - have 2 years of full-time work experience in the area of logistics, transport, shipping, operations or trade.
- If the above academic qualification is from an institution where the language of teaching and assessment is not English, applicants shall provide evidence of English proficiency such as:
- an overall band of 6.0 in the IELTS (with minimum component scores of 5.5 in all four components: listening, reading, speaking and writing); or
  - an overall score 76 or above in the TOEFL iBT (with minimum component scores of listening 17, reading 18, speaking 20, writing 18)
- Applicants may be required to take and pass additional module(s), based on individual merit, before the start of the programme.
- Applicants with other equivalent qualifications will be considered on individual merit.
