

Certificate in Italian (Introductory)

Programme Code: EU018A

☎ 2975 5681

✉ jaime.tong@hkuspace.hku.hk

The programme is aimed at students with no previous or little knowledge of the language. It covers a range of everyday topics and situations and includes a balance of all four skills (speaking, listening, reading and writing), as well as practice on key grammar points, vocabulary and pronunciation relevant to the level. By the end of the programme, students should be able to understand and use basic everyday phrases to introduce themselves, ask and answer questions about personal details. They will also learn language to deal with everyday situations like shopping, eating out, talking about their jobs, families and interests. The programme is equivalent to A1 level in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

- R Applicants shall have:
- no previous or little knowledge of the language; and
 - sufficient English proficiency to follow simple explanations in English.

✉ jaime.tong@hkuspace.hku.hk

This programme can be taken upon successful completion of the Certificate in Italian (Introductory) or an equivalent programme of 110-130 hours. It enables students to consolidate their language foundation and build on their grammar. As a result, students will feel increasingly confident in their communicative ability. By the end of the programme, students should be able to talk about topics such as families and friends, leisure activities, food and drink, past and future situations. They should also be able to understand the main ideas when listening and reading. They can also write simple texts, e.g. postcards and emails. The programme is equivalent to A2 level in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

- R Applicants shall have:
- (a) obtained the Certificate in Italian (Introductory), awarded within the HKU System through HKU SPACE; or
 - (b) studied approximately 110-130 hours of Italian at a different institution; and
 - sufficient English proficiency to follow simple explanations in English.

Other applicants may be interviewed if necessary to confirm their suitability for the programme, e.g. if they have studied a similar number of hours elsewhere or have alternative experience learning the language, such as a study visit to the country.

In the absence of the evidence listed in (a) & (b), students should contact HKU SPACE before the application deadline for further information.

This programme can be taken upon successful completion of the Certificate in Italian (Intermediate) or an equivalent programme of 230-250 hours. It continues to build upon the language already acquired, adding grammar and practising it in simple discussions, role-plays and group work, so that students can talk with confidence about the past, present and future. By the end of this programme, students should be able to express simple opinions and feelings in the language. They should also be able to read information from simple ads and to write texts on familiar topics using a range of verb tenses. The programme is equivalent to B1 level in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

- R Applicants shall have:
- (a) obtained the Certificate in Italian (Intermediate), awarded within the HKU system through HKU SPACE; or
 - (b) studied approximately 230-250 hours of Italian at a different institution; and
 - sufficient English proficiency to follow simple explanations in English.
- Other applicants may be interviewed if necessary to confirm their suitability for the programme, e.g. if they have studied a similar number of hours elsewhere or have alternative experience learning the language, such as a study visit to the country.
- In the absence of the evidence listed in (a) & (b), students should contact HKU SPACE before the application deadline for further information.
